123. That at all times herein mentioned, and on/or about the 7th day of June, 2007, the defendant, PLANNED PARENTHOOD HUNTINGTON MEDICAL CENTER., failed, neglected and/or omitted to promulgate, enforce, instruct, advise, abide by, require or ensure the appropriate rules, regulations, guidelines, procedures, policies or protocols with respect to said covenant of patient confidentiality regarding the treatment and/or surgical procedures provided and/or performed upon the plaintiff at its said medical facility in violation of the statutes, rules, laws and regulations governing patient confidentiality by its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons, nurses, administrators, secretaries, clerks and/or employees.

124. That the foregoing unauthorized disclosure of highly personal, privileged, private and confidential information regarding the treatment, surgical procedures and management of the plaintiff JASMINE CURTIS by the defendant, PLANNED PARENTHOOD HUNTINGTON MEDICAL CENTER, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons, nurses, administrators, secretaries, clerks, employees and/or medical personnel was performed in such a careless, negligent, wanton, reckless, heedless, and willful manner as to manifest and evidence a reckless disregard for the rights, health and well-being of the plaintiff, and not in accordance with the good and accepted standards of medical and surgical care, practice and ethics, thereby causing the plaintiff to sustain severe injuries and damages.

125. That the foregoing injuries and damages to the plaintiff were caused solely by virtue of the carelessness, negligence, wanton and willful disregard on the part of the defendant, PLANNED PARENTHOOD HUNTINGTON MEDICAL CENTER, its servants, agents, secretaries, clerks, affiliated physicians, surgeons, employees, medical and/or nursing personnel and without any negligence on the part of the plaintiff contributing thereto.

126. That by reason of the foregoing, this plaintiff was severely injured and damaged, rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, sustained severe nervous shock and mental anguish, great pain and emotional upset, some of which injuries are permanent in nature and duration, and plaintiff will be permanently caused to suffer pain, inconvenience and other effects of such injuries; plaintiff incurred and in the future will necessarily incur further hospital and/or medical expenses in an effort to be cured of said injuries; and plaintiff has suffered and in the future will necessarily suffer additional loss of time and earnings from employment; and plaintiff will be unable to pursue the usual duties with the same degree of efficiency as prior to the negligence and breach of fiduciary duty and covenant of confidentiality on the part of the defendant, all to plaintiff's great damage.

127. That this action falls within one or more of the exceptions set forth in CPLR 1602.

128. Pursuant to CPLR Section 1602(2)(iv), defendant is jointly and severally liable for all of plaintiff's damages, including but not limited to plaintiff's non-economic loss, irrespective of the provisions of the CPLR Section 1601, by reason of the fact that defendant owed the plaintiff a non-delegable duty of care.

129. Pursuant to CPLR Section 1602(7), defendant is jointly and severally liable for all of plaintiff's damages, including but not limited to plaintiff's non-economic loss, irrespective of the provisions of the CPLR Section 1601, by reason of the fact that defendant acted with reckless disregard of the safety of others.

130. Pursuant to CPLR Section 1602(2)(iv), the defendant is jointly and severally liable for all of plaintiff's damages, including but not limited to plaintiff's non-economic loss, irrespective of the provisions of the CPLR Section 1601, by reason of the fact that said defendant is vicariously liable for the negligent acts and omissions of others who caused or contributed to the plaintiff's damages.

131. By reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff named herein, was caused to be damaged in body and mind, was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, has been and will continue to be obligated to incur and expend large sums of money for her medical care and attention, and has otherwise been damaged in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION:

132. That plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation as contained in the First Cause of Action of the within Complaint with the same force and effect as though each were more fully set forth at length herein.

133. That the foregoing unauthorized disclosure of highly personal, privileged, private and confidential information regarding the treatment, surgical procedures and management of the plaintiff JASMINE CURTIS by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons, nurses, administrators, employees and/or medical personnel constituted a breach of confidentiality by reason of which the plaintiff was caused to sustain severe injuries and damages.

134. By reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff named herein, was caused to be damaged in body and mind, was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, has been and will continue to be obligated to incur and expend large sums of money for her medical care and attention, and has otherwise been damaged in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION:

135. That plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation as contained in the First and Second Causes of Action of the within Complaint with the same force and effect as though each were more fully set forth at length herein.

136. That the foregoing unauthorized disclosure of highly personal, privileged, private and confidential information regarding the treatment, surgical procedures and management of the plaintiff JASMINE CURTIS by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons, nurses, administrators, employees and/or medical personnel constituted an invasion of privacy by reason of which the plaintiff was caused to sustain severe injuries and damages.

137. By reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff named herein, was caused to be damaged in body and mind, was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, has been and will continue to be obligated to incur and expend large sums of money for her medical care and attention, and has otherwise been damaged in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION:

138. That plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation as contained in the First, Second and Third Causes of Action of the within Complaint with the same force and effect as though each were more fully set forth at length herein.

139. That at all times herein mentioned, there existed an oral contract and/or agreement between the defendant and the plaintiff relative to a fiduciary duty and covenant of confidence regarding the medical and/or surgical treatment rendered to the plaintiff by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons and/or employees at the said medical facility.

140. That at all times herein mentioned, the plaintiff relied upon said oral contract, fiduciary duty and/or agreement between the defendant and the plaintiff relative to said covenant of confidence regarding the medical and/or surgical treatment rendered to the plaintiff by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons and/or employees at the said medical facility.

141. That at all times herein mentioned, the engagement by the plaintiff of medical and surgical services to be performed by the defendant was undertaken by the plaintiff based solely upon said fiduciary duty, oral contract and/or agreement by the defendant relative to said covenant of confidence regarding the medical and/or surgical treatment rendered to the plaintiff by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons and/or employees at the said medical facility.

142. That the defendant breached its fiduciary duty, oral contract and/or covenant of confidence with the plaintiff relative to such medical and/or surgical procedures performed upon the plaintiff by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons and/or employees.

143. That by reason of the foregoing, the defendant violated the plaintiff's statutory rights to privacy.

144. That as a result of the breach of fiduciary duty, oral contract and covenant of confidence and the unauthorized disclosure of highly personal, privileged and confidential information regarding the plaintiff by the defendant, the plaintiff has been severely injured and damaged, has suffered and continues to suffer extreme embarrassment, humiliation, ridicule, scorn, contempt, derision, emotional anguish, depression, illness and distress.

145. By reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff named herein, was caused to be damaged in body and mind, was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, has been and will continue to be obligated to incur and expend large sums of money for her medical care and attention, and has otherwise been damaged in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION:

146. That plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation as contained in the First, Second, Third and Fourth Causes of Action of the within Complaint with the same force and effect as though each were more fully set forth at length herein.

147. That at all times herein mentioned, there existed an implied contract and/or agreement between the defendant and the plaintiff relative to a fiduciary duty and covenant of confidence regarding the medical and/or surgical treatment rendered to the plaintiff by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons and/or employees at the said medical facility.

148. That at all times herein mentioned, the plaintiff relied upon said implied contract, fiduciary duty and/or agreement between the defendant and the plaintiff relative to said covenant of confidence regarding the medical and/or surgical treatment rendered to the plaintiff by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons and/or employees at the said medical facility.

149. That at all times herein mentioned, the engagement by the plaintiff of medical and surgical services to be performed by the defendant was undertaken by the plaintiff based solely upon said fiduciary duty, implied contract and/or agreement by the defendant relative to said covenant of confidence regarding the medical and/or surgical treatment rendered to the plaintiff by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons and/or employees at the said medical facility.

150. That on the 7th day of June 2007, the defendant breached its fiduciary duty, implied contract and/or covenant of confidence with the plaintiff relative to such medical and/or surgical procedures performed upon the plaintiff by the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons and/or employees.

151. That by reason of the foregoing, the defendant violated the plaintiff's statutory rights to privacy.

152. That by reason of the foregoing, the defendant has violated the independent special duties imposed upon physicians by statute pursuant to the Public Health Law.

153. That as a result of the breach of fiduciary duty, implied contract and covenant of confidence and the unauthorized disclosure of highly personal, privileged and confidential information regarding the plaintiff by the defendant, the plaintiff has been severely injured and damaged, has suffered and continues to suffer extreme embarrassment, humiliation, ridicule, scorn, contempt, derision, emotional anguish, depression, illness and distress.

154. By reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff named herein, was caused to be damaged in body and mind, was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, has been and will continue to be obligated to incur and expend large sums of money for her medical care and attention, and has otherwise been damaged in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION:

155. That plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation as contained in the First, Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Causes of Action of the within Complaint with the same force and effect as though each were more fully set forth at length herein.

156. That the foregoing occurrences and the resulting injuries to the plaintiff were caused solely by reason of the carelessness, negligence, wanton disregard and intentional infliction of emotional distress on the part of the defendant, its servants, agents, affiliated physicians, surgeons, nurses, administrators and/or employees, in violation of the plaintiff's right to privacy and without any cause, provocation, justification, consent or authorization on the part of the plaintiff to do so.

157. By reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff named herein, was caused to be damaged in body and mind, was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, has been and will continue to be obligated to incur and expend large sums of money for her medical care and attention, and has otherwise been damaged in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION:

158. That plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation as contained in the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Causes of Action of the within Complaint with the same force and effect as though each were more fully set forth at length herein.

159. That the defendants acted maliciously and were guilty of wanton, reckless and willful disregard of the rights, well-being and suffering of the plaintiff herein, and by reason thereof, the plaintiff is entitled to compensatory and punitive damages.

160. By reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff named herein, was caused to be damaged in body and mind, was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, has been and will continue to be obligated to incur and expend large sums of money for her medical care and attention, and has otherwise been damaged in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter.

WHEREFORE, by reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff named herein, was caused to be damaged in body and mind, was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, has been and will continue to be obligated to incur and expend large sums of money for her medical care and attention, and has otherwise been damaged in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter

ATTORNEY VERIFICATION

Eric J. Gottfried, an attorney at law, duly admitted to practice in the Courts of the State of New York, affirms under the penalties of perjury that:

I am one of the attorneys for the plaintiff(s) in the above entitled action. That I have read the foregoing SUMMONS AND VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and upon information and belief, deponent believe the matters alleged therein to be true.

The reason this Verification is made by deponent and not by the plaintiff(s) is that the plaintiff(s) herein reside(s) in a county other than the one in which the plaintiff's attorneys maintain their office.

The source of my information and the grounds of my belief are communication, papers, reports and investigation contained in the file in my office.

Dated: New York, New York
 January 17, 2008

Eric Gottfried, Esq.
