20. Plaintiff does not assert a claim of “professional negligence” against Defendant Planned Parenthood. Plaintiff’s claims against Defendant Planned Parenthood arise from Planned Parenthood’s acts and/or omissions relating to the prescription and administration of Depo-Provera that constitute misrepresentations that induced Plaintiff to use Depo-Provera. Plaintiff also alleges intentional and fraudulent acts and omissions by Planned Parenthood that are outside the scope of professional negligence.

CAUSES OF ACTION

21. For avoidance of doubt, Count I: Strict Products Liability – Failure to Warn, Count II: Strict Products Liability Design Defect, Count III: General Negligence, Count IV: Negligent Failure to Warn, Count VI: Negligent Misrepresentation, Count VII: Fraud - Intentional Misrepresentation, and Count VIII: Violation of Consumer Protection Laws asserted by Plaintiff in the Master Complaint are herein adopted by reference and asserted against all Defendants, Pfizer, Inc., Pharmacia & Upjohn Co. LLC, Pharmacia LLC, and Planned Parenthood.

22. Count V: Negligent Design asserted by Plaintiff in the Master Complaint is herein adopted by reference and asserted against Manufacturing Defendants, Pfizer, Inc., Pharmacia & Upjohn Co. LLC, and Pharmacia LLC.

A. Additional Facts Supporting Count IV: Negligent Failure to Warn

23. Defendant Planned Parenthood acted negligently, and breached its duties to Plaintiff, through acts and omissions including the following:

- a. Failing to undertake to provide adequate warnings, instructions, guidelines, and safety precautions to those persons Planned Parenthood could reasonably foresee would use Depo-Provera;
- b. Failing to disclose to Plaintiff, users/consumers, Plaintiff's prescribing healthcare provider, and the general public that use of Depo-Provera presented a risk of meningioma;
- c. Failing to warn Plaintiff, consumers, and the general public that Depo-Provera's risk of harm was unreasonable and that there were safer and effective alternative contraceptives available to Plaintiff and other consumers;

1 d. Recommending the use of Depo-Provera, while concealing and failing to
2 disclose or warn of the dangers known or knowable to be associated with or
3 caused by the use of Depo-Provera.

4 B. Additional Facts Supporting Count VI: Negligent Misrepresentation and Count VII:
5 Fraud - Intentional Misrepresentation

6 24. Defendants negligently and/or intentionally fraudulently misrepresented the safety
7 risks of Depo-Provera to Plaintiff, her Depo-Provera prescribing and administering healthcare
8 providers, and the general public during the years that Plaintiff used Depo-Provera.

9 25. Defendants knew, or had reason to know, that Depo-Provera posed a risk of 10 meningioma.

11 26. Defendants falsely represented that Depo-Provera had been adequately tested and was 12 safe and effective, while intentionally concealing material information regarding its true risk profile,
13 including concealing the risk of meningioma. Defendants fraudulently concealed and intentionally or 14 recklessly omitted that Depo-Provera was less safe and less effective than other similar products on 15 the market at the time, and that testing and surveillance of Depo-Provera showed a higher risk of 16 adverse effects compared to alternatives.

17 27. Defendants disseminated these misrepresentations through Depo-Provera labeling
18 materials, advertising campaigns, print campaigns, Pfizer's website, information presented at point
19 of sale and in marketing, information disseminated by company representatives, reports, press
20 releases, television commercials, and print advertisements.

21 28. Defendants possess full information concerning their false misrepresentations made to 22 Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Depo-Provera prescribing and administering healthcare providers, and the general
23 public during the time period that Plaintiff used Depo-Provera.

24 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

25 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff has been damaged as a result of Defendants' actions or inactions
26 and demands judgment against Defendants on each of the above-referenced causes of action, jointly
27 and severally to the full extent available in law or equity, as requested in the Master Complaint for 28 compensatory and punitive damages.
